To whom it may concern,

AUSTRALIAN AIR FORCE CADET (AAFC) RECRUITING PACKAGE

The AAFC is a youth organisation, predominantly by volunteer efforts, dedicated to training young Australians aged between 13 and 18 years. The AAFC develops qualities of leadership, self-reliance, confidence, teamwork and communication.

Please find enclosed a recruitment package for the local Australian Air Force Cadet Squadron. The package contains posters and brochures that can be displayed and distributed at your discretion around the school premise.

The package also contains a recruiting advertisement that would be suited to any applicable student/parent newsletters distributed by your school. To coincide with our recruiting timeline, it would be greatly appreciated and most beneficial if the advertisement was included.

The posters and brochures have all the relevant contact details and the web address included on them, should your students come to you or your staff with any enquiries.

For any additional information please visit the Australian Air Force Cadet Website at www.aafc.org.au or contact the local Squadron as detailed on the enclosures.

Thank you for your co-operation and assistance.

Yours Sincerely,

M.P. Casey
Flight Lieutenant (AAFC)
Commanding Officer
